

THE BAND

The Band will render the following concert program at Makee Island tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, as follows:

PART I.

Overture, "The Old Hundred." Mozart.
Andante, "Surprise Symphony." Haydn.
Grand Selection, "Maritana." Wallace.
Vocal Selection, "Bohemian Girl." Balfe.

PART II.

Selection, "Parisina." Donizetti.
Introduction, "Lohengrin." Wagner.
Entre Act, "Hearts and Flowers." Tobani.
Overture, "Fra Diavolo." Auber.
"The Star Spangled Banner."

BUSINESS LOCALS.

If you have a furnished cottage to rent, will find tenant by consulting our classified ads.

Cleveland, Sterling and other bicycles will be sold at Will E. Fisher's auction rooms on Wednesday.

Pacheco's Dandruff Killer is a natural hair food. For sale by all druggists and Union Barber Shop.

Road Ehlers & Co's ad and get the benefit of the sweeping reductions on ladies' hosiery, towels and sailor hats.

Just phone your order to Lewis & Co., grocers, and get some of the most delicious sausage you have ever tasted.

A young lady advertises today for one or two unfurnished rooms, or small cottage. See our classified ads for address.

Harvard hatpin, in form of an ear, was lost on the street yesterday. Finder will be rewarded by returning same to this office.

A two-story house in Auld's Lane, Palama, is offered for rent. For particulars, call on Mr. W. T. Rollins, at Holmes & Stanley.

Felt hats reduced from $2.50 and $1.50 to 50 cents, 75 cents and $1.00, at Miss N. F. Hawley's millinery parlors. Also, special sale of flowers.

James F. Morgan will sell on Tuesday next an assortment of household furniture, dry goods, etc. Sale will take place at his salesroom on Queen street.

A roll-top office desk, nearly new; also Remington typewriter and office chairs, are offered for sale. Can be seen in room 307, Stangenwald building.

Some very valuable property on corner of Kakauike and Pauahi streets will be sold today at public auction by James F. Morgan, at his salesrooms, at noon.

Some choice household furniture will be sold at Will E. Fisher's auction rooms, Merchant and Alaiea streets, next Wednesday at noon. List is published under his flag in this paper.

Leasehold of the premises formerly occupied by Collins, the saddler, on King street, is to be sold today on the premises, 28 North King street. Will E. Fisher will conduct the sale, which takes place at noon.

MAY RENT ROOMS.

Y. M. C. A. Will Lease Floor in Adjoining Block.

The Young Men's Christian Association may branch out into the renting of rooms as a means of obtaining revenue, as the following paragraph from the Association Review for January states: "Suppose the second floor of the building adjoining ours should be finished off in fifteen to twenty attractive lodgings-rooms. Suppose the Y. M. C. A. should lease the whole floor with the idea of renting the rooms for a sufficient sum to cover expenses and no more. Would the idea be appreciated and the rooms occupied well enough so that we would not have to add a large percentage for 'empties'?" The location is constantly improving. Talk it over, and talk it up, if you believe in it.

Funeral of A. F. Gillilan.

Archibald F. Gillilan, a member of the Hawaiian Legislature and a well known resident of Honolulu, who was killed in Philadelphia by being thrown from a trolley car on December 23, will be buried here today at 2 o'clock, from the Masonic Temple. The dead man was a Knight Templar of Honolulu Commandery, and among the Honolulu-ans who will attend the obsequies today will be Samuel Parker, George Gear, George Davis and J. G. Rothwell, all of the same commandery. Gillilan was wharf superintendent for H. Hackfeld & Co., of Honolulu, and went from his home to attend the Knights Templar convocation at Louisville, Ky., some months ago. From Louisville he went to Buffalo, and there dropped out of sight. His friends in Hawaii were alarmed over his mysterious absence, and first learned of his whereabouts when they read of his death.—Chronicle.

Outside Capital Wanted.

The Advertiser is right when it says that the business men of this Territory cannot afford to antagonize the business men of the Mainland. This Territory has needed money very badly the past five years, and has received it from the Mainland in large measure. The Territory still has need of Mainland money, and we can only hope for it through fair dealing with Mainland investors. Unfortunately, some of our Territorial enterprises have failed to meet the expectations of investors, and just now Hawaiian investments are under a cloud. It is madness to ignore the rights of our Mainland helpers by business methods that can only excite indignation and suspicion.—Independent.

Scottish Musical.

Scotland is to have a musical night of its own on Thursday, the 23d instant. Captain Berger has kindly consented to give a series of Scotch pieces on that evening at the Hawaiian Hotel. There will undoubtedly be a large turn-out of the "strapping chieftains and sonsie lasses," for whom the Land of Oakes is justly famous. For the "chieftains" it will be a warming up and a preliminary to their Burns celebration on the following evening in the Elks' Hall.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Madam Small—social tonight at Elks' Hall.

H. M. Von Holt is expected back on the next steamer.

Last day of the book and art sale in Stangenwald building.

Some fine came from Kona plantation is on exhibition at McInerney's shoe store.

Mrs. J. Paul Keppeler, of Pearl City, is suffering from a dislocated arm, which resulted from a fall at the Honolulu station Wednesday.

George H. Robertson, manager of C. Brewer & Co., has reported to the police that an attempt was made to hold him up on Thursday night.

The football game between the Judiciary and Capitol Clerks will come off today at Punahou unless there is another change in the program.

The Sun Ching Kwok Bo, the organ of the Chinese reformers, charges that the protest of the charter of the Chinese Society is actuated by jealousy.

The new system of registration by carriers will be inaugurated in Honolulu next Monday. Letters will be received for registration by the carrier at the residences.

Porto Ricans are said to be causing trouble at Honokaa plantation, and were brought into subjection by the Japanese laborers upon the occasion of a recent outbreak.

Director Jared Smith, of the Experiment Station, will undertake to improve the Hawaiian mango. He has received a letter from Prof. E. Gale, of Florida, giving a new plan for grafting the tree.

Robert Graham, manager of the Armour car line, has returned from a pleasure trip to Honolulu, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Grace Graham. They have apartments at the Palace.—Chronicle.

The Mohican was due to arrive from Hilo yesterday, but is evidently held back for some cause or other. The navy officials do not know as yet, whether or not the training ship has reached there.

SAMOANS WANT TAXES INCREASED

TUTUILA, Samoa, Dec. 24.—At a recent district meeting of the natives a resolution was passed asking the commandant to increase the native tax. The reason attributed was that the taxes should increase in proportion to the prosperity of the place under American rule.

Following the example set by Chief Lefato in road making, other tribes have started to improve the roads in their towns. In Pago Pago especially, after waiting for the government to act the chiefs have taken the matter up themselves and are now forming a road twelve feet wide around the bay. Their difficulty commences when they have to cut through land owned by whites who make objections and place obstacles in the way.

Will Pass Through.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Secretary Long has detached Rear Admiral Wildes from his present duty as Commandant of the Pensacola Navy Yard and ordered him to relieve Rear Admiral Louis Kempf, the junior squadron commander on the Asiatic station. Admiral Wildes will sail from San Francisco on the China for his post on February 7. It is possible that Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, who is to be the senior squadron commander on the Asiatic station, will sail on the same steamer.

A Snap in Jewelry, Etc.

Thursday, Jan. 23, will be the last day of the great clearance sale of jewelry, clocks, silverware, etc., at the store of the late H. G. Blatt, Fort, near King street. All the articles must be sold at once for cash, at greatly reduced prices. Call early.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions, and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.

Why Take Chances?

It is a well known fact that rats are active agents in spreading disease.

See that your premises are free from this pest.

Some so-called rat poisons merely serve to fatten those rats and mice which are lucky enough to get a chance at it.

Rats Must Go

is sure, speedy and absolutely certain death to rats and mice.

Rats Must Go is poison, and a real poison, one of the kind that kills. One can will effectually demonstrate this fact.
